14	An initial hearing on supervised release revocation in this case was scheduled before me
15	on May 7, 2007. The United States was represented by AUSA Karyn S. Johnson and the 16	defendant by Robert W. Goldsmith. The proceedings were digitally recorded.
17	Defendant had been sentenced on or about June 11, 2003 by the Honorable Barbara Jacobs
18	Rothstein on a charge of Bank Fraud, and sentenced to 15 months custody, 5 years supervised
19	release.
20	The conditions of supervised release included the standard conditions plus the requirements
21	that defendant participate in a drug dependency program, abstain from alcohol, submit to search,
22	participate in mental health treatment, pay restitution in the amount of $19,184, provide his probation officer with access to financial information, maintain a single checking account for all transactions, provide information about any business interests, disclose all assets and liabilities, 02 refrain from establishing any new credit, and not possess any form of identification in any but his 03 true name. (Dkt. 22, 23.) The case was subsequently re-assigned to the Honorable John C. Coughenour. 05 06 In an application dated May 2, 2007 (Dkt. 26), U.S. Probation Officer Brian H. Rogers 07 alleged the following violation of the conditions of supervised release: 08 1. Using cocaine on or about April 30, 2007, in violation of standard condition 09 number seven, and the mandatory condition that he refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled 10 substance. 11 Defendant was advised in full as to the charge and as to his constitutional rights. 12 Defendant admitted the alleged violation and waived any evidentiary hearing as to whether 13 it occurred. 14 I therefore recommend the Court find defendant violated his supervised release as alleged, 15 and that the Court conduct a hearing limited to the issue of disposition. The next hearing will be set before Judge Coughenour. 16 17 Pending a final determination by the Court, defendant has been detained. 18 DATED this 7th day of May, 2007. 19 20 United States Magistrate Judge 21
